

PENN CENTRAL

March 20, 1968

MEMORANDUM

Consummation of the Penn Central merger has resulted in the establishment of a new employee magazine -- Penn Central POST.

Arrangements have been made to distribute the POST to former New York Central employees in the same manner as the former Headlight magazine.

To keep our records current, please check the mailing address and quantity you now receive and advise by April 1st of any necessary change. Also arrange to keep us advised monthly of any further changes. This information should be directed to the attention of: Mr. A. R. Harrison, administrative assistant, Public Relations Department, 466 Lexington Avenue, New York City.

U. W. Cunitz
